LOCATION.

Fronting towards the south, on Broadway, nearly opposite the State Capitol and its magnificent square of ten acres, ESTHER INSTITUTE occupies one of the most beautiful, healthy and eligible sites in the city of Columbus. The grounds consist of three full city lots, forming an entire square of $187\frac{1}{2}$ feet. Situate so near the Public Square, and isolated by intervening streets and wide alleys from other lots, (Broadway on the south, being 120 feet, and Fourth street on the east, $82\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide,) the Institution can never be deprived, by surrounding buildings, of its plentiful supply of light and pure air.

BUILDINGS.

The principal edifice is 90 feet long by 52 feet wide, and three stories high above the basement; each story being 16 feet between floor and ceiling. It is warmed by three of Chilson's hot air furnaces, and all the session, class, lecture, and private rooms and halls, are supplied with ventilating flues and gas lights. The private rooms of boarders occupy the third story, and open into a commodious hall for recreation, eighty-seven feet long and nearly twenty in width. The building is also provided with convenient bathing rooms, for plunge and shower baths, to which the boarders have free access. The rooms of the Principal adjoin the main edifice.

FURNITURE OF SCHOOL ROOMS.

The Session rooms are furnished with neat desks, SINGLE for the Collegiate and Academic departments, and DOUBLE for the Primary department, and comfortable separate chairs for all the pupils; and the Lecture and Class Rooms with settees, all graduated to the ages of the occupants. All of these rooms are neatly carpeted.

RECREATION.

The finely shaded play grounds of the Institution are supplied with a complete apparatus for gymnastic exercises, and there are also accommodations, besides the hall already mentioned, for exercise during unpleasant weather.

APPARATUS AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

The Apparatus and Illustrations in Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Physiology, Astronomy, Natural History and Geography, are unusually complete and extensive. For illustrating Physiology, there are, besides an entire set of "Cutter's Anatomical Plates," a skeleton, and another full size natural anatomical preparation, so dissected as to show the vital organs, principal arteries and veins, nerves, muscles, etc., in their true positions, together with separate natural preparations of the heart, brain, lungs, liver, eye, ear, etc.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The Academic year commences on the last Wednesday in September, and closes on the last Tuesday in June. It is divided into THREE TERMS, of twelve weeks each ; affording a short vacation at the Christmas holidays, and another in March, at the end of the second term.

ENTRANCE AND ATTENDANCE.

It is of the highest importance, that pupils should be present at the commencement of the term ; be strictly punctual and constant in their attendance, and permit nothing but absolute necessity to keep them away from a single recitation. Parents and guardians are earnestly requested not to consent to absence from ANY RECITATIONS OR EXAMINATIONS, when they can possibly avoid it. Reports of attendance conduct and recitations are sent to parents every fortnight.

EXAMINATIONS, CERTIFICATES AND DIPLOMAS.

A public examination is held at the end of each term, at which ALL the pupils are expected to be present. After such examination, Certificates will be given to the pupils in attendance, for each study which they shall have respectively completed. Diplomas will be awarded only on the completion of the full course, after final examination, and on the presentation of the Certificates previously given. Pupils from other Schools or Seminaries will be promoted to the classes for which they are prepared, and receive their Diplomas with their classes on final examination. They will, however, be required to produce satisfactory certificates from their former Instructors, or to undergo a full examination in this Institution.

DISCIPLINE.

The government of the Institution is mild and parental, but firm ; and while no unnecessary restraints are imposed, strict obedience and conformity to existing regulations are expected and enforced. A conscientious regard to right, proper self-respect, and mutual affection and confidence between teachers and pupils, are sedulously cultivated and cherished as the best motives to voluntary self-government.

THE FAMILY.

Boarders are treated as members of the family of the Principal, taking their meals at the same table with him, participating in family worship, etc. Their private rooms are fitted up FOR TWO PERSONS ONLY, and are comfortably furnished and carpeted ; and no pains are spared to make the Institution a PLEASANT HOME in every respect, to all its inmates. The Associate Principal and other female Teachers boarding in the Institution, room on the same floor with the pupils, mingle freely with them, and have them constantly under their supervision. At least an hour of exercise in the open air each day is required. The pupils rise at five o'clock in the winter, and at half past four in the summer, and retire at half past nine. Every light must be extinguished by ten o'clock. Pupils will be required to attend public worship every Sunday, health permitting, at such of the churches in the city as their parents shall designate. If no choice is expressed by the parents, they will attend the English Lutheran church with the Principal and his family. They will be expected to preserve order and quiet in their rooms and throughout the house, and refrain from any thing like a desecration of the day. Order, punctuality, and neatness in their persons and rooms, and a kind and respectful demeanor will be expected of all. Each pupil should be provided with an umbrella, overshoes, towels, and a suitable dress for gymnastic exercises. Every article of clothing should be distinctly marked, with the full name of the owner. When medical aid is required, the family physician of the Principal is consulted, unless another choice has been previously indicated, by the parent or guardian of the patient.
